Nationally Recognized Speaker on Mental Health

KAI ROBERTS
Thursday, Sept. 20
12:30 p.m. to 1:45 p.m.
Davidson Rooms in the SCC

In this high energy presentation, Kai tells the story of his battle with anxiety and panic disorder through interactive dialogue and hip-hop music. From the beginning, the audience is engrossed in the origins of his anxiety, gradually taking the emotional journey through his disorder and into his recovery. Be prepared for good music, meaningful messages, and an overall good time. Co-sponsored with Office of Counseling & Student Success and Office of Special Events.

Climate Change 101

DR. JASON E. SMERDON
Thursday, Oct. 11
12:30 p.m. to 1:45 p.m.
SH100

Prof. Jason E. Smerdon is a Lamont Research Professor at the Lamont-Doherty Earth Observatory of Columbia University. He teaches courses on climate, environmental change, and sustainable development to undergrad and graduate students. Smerdon's research focuses on climate variability and change during the past several millennia and how past climates can help us understand future climate change. He will lecture about climate change for science and non-science majors.

Film Screening & Discussion

TROUBLE THE WATER
Wednesday, Nov. 7
12:15 p.m. to 2 p.m. & 7 p.m. to 8:45 p.m.
Davidson C-D

Trouble the Water takes audiences inside Hurricane Katrina in a way never before seen on screen. The film opens the day before the storm makes landfall — blocks away from the French Quarter but far from the New Orleans that most tourists know. Kimberly Rivers Roberts, an aspiring rap artist, is turning her new video camera on herself and her 9th Ward neighbors trapped in the city. An Oscar nominee.

1st-Ever Legacy Read

FLIGHT BEHAVIOR
Monday, Dec. 3
6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Davidson A

Flight Behavior by Barbara Kingsolver is a brilliant and suspenseful novel set in present day Appalachia; a breathtakingparable of catastrophe and denial that explores how the complexities we inevitably encounter in life lead us to believe in our particular chosen truths. Faculty, staff, students, and community members should read the book prior to our discussion. Light refreshments will be served.
