HUMAN SERVICES: PRE-SOCIAL WORK

Associate of Arts

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

The Human Services: Pre-Social Work program at CCM offers an ideal foundation for those considering Social Work or other related careers. The curriculum is multidisciplinary, and candidates develop theoretical and practical knowledge in areas such as social welfare, public policy, counseling, social and behavioral science, biological science, multicultural perspectives, the humanities, multicultural perspectives and the humanities.

The program is structured for seamless transfer into BSW (Bachelor of Social Work) and MSW (Master of Social Work) programs at four-year colleges and universities. Additionally, the curriculum provides a strong grounding for those directly entering the workforce.
