The Legal Assistant Certificate of Achievement is designed to provide students with the foundation needed to perform substantive legal work. This certificate of achievement focuses on developing strong specific analytical skills, while stressing the importance of strong research and writing skills throughout each of its classes. Students will have the opportunity to learn various foundational legal topics and how to apply this knowledge of law, legal precedents, procedural courtroom requirements, as well as the ethical standards that are required for working with clients and handling legal issues.

Students may be able to transfer the 18-credit certificate toward CCM's A.S. in Criminal Justice, Justice Studies option.

After completing this certificate of achievement, students should reach out to their CCM advisors regarding the National Association of Legal Assistants (NALA) certification exam.
