

To: CCM Landscape & Horticulture Technology Students
WMC Graduating Seniors with interest in Horticulture Studies

From: Garden Club of Long Valley

Re: Debbie Burgess-Sikorski Scholarship Award

Criteria for scholarship application.

Student must be planning to attend a program for the study of sciences focused on horticulture in the pursuit of a career involving same. Environmental sciences, landscaping and the general pursuit of a career involving the use of plants and their care is the utmost importance of this scholarship. The candidate must submit three (3) references and a personal essay on their interest in this field with a description of their plans for further study.

Applicants will be eligible for an award of $500 to $1500.

Submission should be received by May 1, 2018 (or please contact committee)

All correspondence should be mailed to

The Garden Club of Long Valley
Scholarship Committee
PO Box 132
Long Valley, NJ 07853

Any questions:

Shelby Stretton, Committee Chair
Shelby@shelbystretton.com
908-507-8426 cell