

Transfer Articulation Agreement between

William Paterson University College of Humanities and Social Sciences and

County College of Morris

for the

Associate in Science Degree in Criminal Justice and the

Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminology and Criminal Justice

The intent of this articulation agreement is to define the procedures for a transfer articulation between William Paterson University College of Humanities and Social Sciences and County College of Morris. Both entities agree to mutual cooperation in establishing and maintaining articulation for their respective programs for the Associate in Science Degree in Criminal Justice transferable to a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminology and Criminal Justice at William Paterson University College of Humanities and Social Sciences. The principal beneficiaries of this agreement are students seeking a major in Criminology and Criminal Justice whose progress toward their degrees is best assured when they are provided with current information about courses and programs. Firm arrangements between departments and institutions provide the opportunity for these students to plan a total baccalaureate degree at the outset of their college education.

William Paterson University agrees to accept all the general education credits included in the County College of Morris Associate in Science Degree in Criminal Justice. Per its transfer credit policy, William Paterson University agrees to accept up to half of the credits required for the major. Course equivalencies for Criminology and Criminal Justice prerequisites and major courses will also be accepted (see Appendix A for specific course requirements) and will serve as the basis for equivalencies.

This agreement will become effective immediately upon the signatures of both parties. Immediately thereafter, William Paterson University will provide information packets for transfer admission, special transfer days, and other recruitment services. In turn, County College of Morris will make available to its students all information, including the list of course equivalencies pertaining to this agreement. The agreement and equivalencies will be reviewed on a regular basis.
