★ IF AM REQUIRED TO TAKE REMEDIATION COURSES, WILL I STILL BE NJSTARS ELIGIBLE?

No. Students who do not meet the required placement score (demonstrate college readiness) will be given one (1) year to gain the skills they need to be college ready, maintaining their NJ STAR eligibility.

NOTE: NJSTARS does not cover costs for remedial coursework; however student may be eligible for other types of federal and state financial aid, loans included.

★ CAN I ENROLL FOR BOTH REMEDIATION AND NON- REMEDIATION COURSES WITHIN THE SAME TERM AND REMAIN ELIGIBLE?

Yes. Enrollment MUST be a minimum of 12 non-remedial course credits with all remedial and developmental course costs paid out-of-pocket or with other types of aid.

★ IF I INITIALLY ENROLL FOR 18 CREDITS THEN DROP TO 12 CREDITS, WILL I REMAIN ELIGIBLE FOR MY INITIAL AWARD?

No. Your Scholarship will be reduced and you may be responsible for any differences.

★ IF I QUALIFY FOR OTHER PRIVATE SCHOLARSHIPS WILL IT AFFECT MY NJSTARS ELIGIBILITY?

No. Nor will it reduce your NJSTARS amount.

★ IF I DID NOT FILE THE FAFSA OR MY HIGH SCHOOL DID NOT REPORT MY CLASS SIZE & RANK AT THE TIME OF REGISTRATION, WILL I STILL RECEIVE MY SCHOLARSHIP?

No.

★ WHAT SHOULD I DO IF MY HIGH SCHOOL DID NOT REPORT MY RANK TO THE STATE?

Contact your High School Guidance Counselor, and request their submission of your final class rank and the graduating class size to CCM (for NJ Stars use only).

★ I WAS HOMESCHOOLED TRADITIONALLY, AM I ELIGIBLE?

No. However, homeschooled students who transfer/enroll and graduate from a state high school may be eligible, or if homeschooling was with an approved accredited institution that provides an official ranking for its students. The school must provide your class rank, size and date of graduation on letterhead with the school's seal. (HESAA case-by-case review and approval required).

★ HOW DOES CCM DETERMINE IF I AM A CANDIDATE?

Initial identification is made by your high school to the State, or based on your final high school transcript and meeting all HESAA requirements.

★ WILL I STILL BE ELIGIBLE IF I ATTEND A COUNTY COLLEGE OUTSIDE MY COUNTY OF RESIDENCY?

Yes. However out of county residents must obtain a chargeback from their local county community college.

★ WHAT IS A "CHARGEBACK"?

Approval obtained from your local county college, indicating they do not offer your intended course of study or major. Approvals must be submitted to the CCM Bursar Office.

★ IF MY RESIDENT COUNTY DECLINES MY REQUEST FOR A "CHARGEBACK" WILL I STILL BE ELIGIBLE?

No.

★ IF I ATTEND A 4 YEAR COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY (FOREIGN OR DOMESTIC) WILL I STILL BE ELIGIBLE?

Yes. Candidates must transfer to CCM no later than the fifth (5) semester following high school graduation.
