CCM staff members and faculty turned out in force to familiarize people with all the college has to offer. View photos from the event at <https://flic.kr/s/aHsmAreEyB/>.

CREATIVE LEADERSHIP CLUB CREATES CENTERPIECES

The CCM employee Creative Leadership Club, which has been recognized by the college for its ongoing work of making handicrafts and donating them to local nonprofits, was asked this semester to make centerpieces for two campus events. The club divided into two teams, one which made centerpieces from teapots found at antique stores for the Adjunct Recognition Dinner and the other which made bouquets to grace the tables at the EOF Recognition and Awards Ceremony.

STORMWATER MANAGEMENT REGULATIONS

The Public Safety department, in compliance with Federal Stormwater Management Regulations, brings the educational brochure found at <http://tinyurl.com/psnanej> to your attention. Stormwater management was enacted in 1999 by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency to address the health and safety of our ecosystems and subsequently, the quality of our lives.

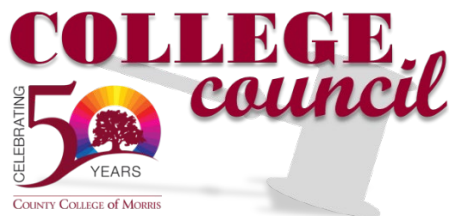

Opportunities to engage in boating, swimming and fishing are diminished if water quality is impaired. Impaired water quality impacts shellfish production, tourism at beaches and coastal communities. It also increases drinking water treatment costs. For more information, contact the Public Safety department at ext. 5550.

RETIRED CCM PROFESSOR CELEBRATES MORE THAN 100 YEARS

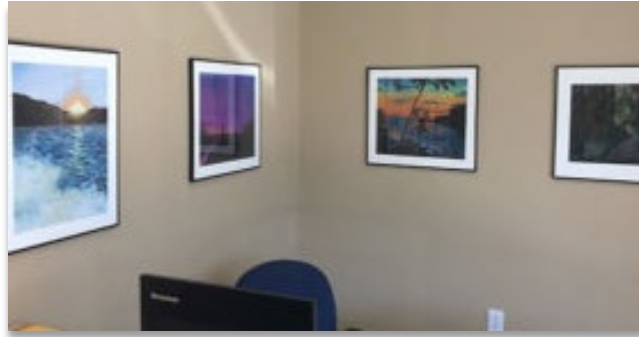

A man who has seen more than most could even imagine is now inviting others to describe what they see – in his artwork. One of the most treasured former professors at CCM may be a centenarian, but he certainly hasn't missed a beat since he retired from teaching. Dr. Endel Uiga was born over a hundred years ago in the small Northern European country of Estonia. He was born just after World War I in 1918, and struggled through several world conflicts before landing in the United States.

PURCHASING DEADLINES FOR FISCAL YEAR 2018/2019

If you are planning to purchase any capital equipment or promotional printed items, please email the Purchasing department immediately. Purchasing needs to determine if in the aggregate any legal thresholds have been exceeded which would require public advertisement. Capital Items that are available under a State Contract or a consortium eliminate the need for public advertisement; therefore, a June 30 delivery may still be achievable.

- Promotional Printed Items - 4/17/19
- Miscellaneous Purchases (excludes repair and maintenance) - 5/10/19
- Blanket Order Change Request - 5/24/19
- WB Mason Office Supplies - 5/31/19
- Blanket Order Releases - 5/31/19
- Check Enclosed Orders - 6/7/19
- Chartwells (Food Service) - 6/7/19

Please make sure there are sufficient funds to support your blanket order increases. Blanket Order Change Requests with insufficient funds will be returned.

When processing Blanket Order Releases, please monitor your remaining balance to ensure that your release is not flagged as an "Unauthorized Purchase". All releases must be processed no later than May 31.

Note: All requisitions received by the deadline date will be prioritized and processed accordingly. If your requisition is received after the deadline, it may not be processed because Purchasing cannot guarantee a June 30 delivery.

MassMutual (formerly Hartford) representative Kenneth Quarnaccio is available for individual appointments. Call 848-248-4313 or email kquarnaccio@gittermanwealth.com.

VALIC representative MaryAnn Bradford is available for individual appointments. Call 908-470-4114 or email Maryann.bradford@valic.com.

SPORTS JOURNALISM CLASS MEETS WITH LEADERS IN THE FIELD

The Sports Journalism class at CCM, taught by Professor John Soltes, traveled to the Phillies stadium in Philadelphia this week for the Business of Sports Media and Marketing Night. The event was hosted by the Phillies and Temple University's Fox School of Business. The CCM group led the way during a Q&A session, so much so that student Lloyd Wilson is now sharing his CCM-produced sports talk show with the Phillies organization, so they can have a look and offer some pointers. Student Christian Didea was able to professionally interview a pitcher with the Phillies as well – no doubt a first for a CCM journalism student. In addition, the students took selfies with World Series trophies, networked with journalists and PR professionals, learned about MLB sports media and watched the game, the Phillies vs Mets. Sports Journalism began at CCM this spring and is expected to continue next academic year.

KUDOS

On Tuesday, April 17, Dr. Pamela Marcenaro, dean of Learning Support and Opportunity Services, and Edith Nelson, EOF counselor, presented a workshop at the Tri-State Consortium of Opportunity Programs Bi-Annual Conference titled "Expand Your Opportunity Center's Student Support Network through a Professional Mentor Program." The presentation provided attendees with information for opportunity programs that are looking to offer extended support and options to their students outside of their institutions, through professional mentoring. The workshop covered the structure of CCM/EOF's Professional Mentor Program, which is going into its fifth year. Topics discussed included how the program connects students with mentors within their professional/major areas of interest, how it helps students expand their network base while in college and helps in their personal growth, in addition to the benefits and lessons CCM has learned from running the program for four years now.
