CCM Professor Joe Bilotti and His Band to Honor Rock Legend Jim Morrison at Mayo Performing Arts Recreating the Contributions of Morrison on the 50th Anniversary of His Passing

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the death of Jim Morrison and CCM Professor Joe Bilotti and his band The Soft Parade will be recognizing the music legend’s lasting contributions with a performance at the Mayo Performing Arts Center (MPAC).

The Soft Parade: Tribute to The Doors live performance takes place Friday, June 25, at 7:30 p.m. at MPAC in Morristown on the Main Stage. Tickets are $29 - $49 and can be purchased at www.mayoarts.org/.

Morrison, singer, songwriter and poet, was the lead vocalist of the rock band The Doors and is regarded as a major influential front man in rock history.

The Soft Parade is known as the originators of the authentic Doors live experience and is one of the longest running and most successful of all tribute bands. The band also is celebrating its 30th anniversary this year.

“The band recreates, with stunning accuracy, the primal, poetic atmosphere of a vintage Doors concert,” says Bilotti, who teaches music at CCM. “The Soft Parade helped to spearhead an industry by pioneering the concept of the tribute band decades ago and has achieved international success as the very first authentic Doors tribute show.”

The Soft Parade, an international touring band, has performed for massive crowds in theaters, stadiums and festivals in more than 20 countries, including Germany, Chile, Israel, Italy, France, Spain, Costa Rica and Belgium. The Soft Parade also was the first-ever band to utilize vintage gear – instruments, clothing and look-alike members – to recreate The Doors live.

Along with Bilotti on guitar, the band consists of founding member and lead singer Joe Russo, who uncannily looks like Morrison and possesses an innate ability to channel the power, intensity and charisma of the rock legend, Mike Abel on keyboards and Vic Ruiz on drums.

CCM Public Safety Sergeant Completes FBI Training

Public Safety Sgt. Paul Hildebrand recently received the FBI-LEEDA Trilogy Award. The award is given to candidates who successfully complete the FBI’s Investigation’s Law Enforcement Executive Development Association training series. Over the last year, Hildebrand successfully completed the Supervisor Leadership Institute, Command Leadership Institute and Executive Leadership Institute. By sponsoring the training at CCM, the training was provided at no cost.

The mission of FBI-LEEDA is to advance the science and art of law enforcement leadership and promote the exchange of information to improve management practices through training, education and networking among professionals across the United States and beyond. The LEEDA core values are continuous learning, creating enduring relationships, embracing great leadership and diversity. These are values certainly shared by CCM Public Safety. Congratulations Paul!

The Flavor of Giving

The Foundation recently held a sold-out Flavor of Giving event that raised more than $12,000 for the Titan's Emergency Fund and the Titan's Table food pantry. The event featured a three-course meal from Harvest Restaurant Group and a video of Executive Chef Bill Hendra providing cooking tips. You can view that video here. Virtual remarks also were given by Andrea Alfonso, a 2018 CCM graduate who continued her studies at Cornell University and recently started a fellowship with the National Institutes of Health. Alfonso is one of the more than 4,000 students the CCM Foundation has supported with scholarships over the past 20 years.
