CCM Athletics Presented with Champions of Character Award Recognized for Excellence in Sportsmanship, Integrity and Community Service

The Athletic Department – from student/athletes and coaches to administration and staff – recently gained additional confirmation of their success with a Champions of Character Award from the National Junior College Athletic Association Region XIX.

The award recognizes outstanding results in the character development of student/athletes and coaches by embracing the five core values of respect, responsibility, integrity, servant leadership and sportsmanship. Additionally, the award recognizes institutions that demonstrate outstanding involvement in the community, which results in positive character development.

“It is such an honor to have our student/athletes, their coaches and the staff who support them recognized with this prestigious award,” says Jack Sullivan, director of Athletics at CCM. “The college places a very high emphasis on developing and supporting athletes who succeed both on and off the field, and we’re pleased to have Region XIX recognize those efforts.”

While the Titans have won many honors and championships over the years, this is the first time CCM Athletics has been recognized with this award.

Mona F. Ressaissi, Adjunct Professor, Business, recently was honored at the New Jersey Supreme Court, along with 10 other attorneys, for her pro bono service. They each were nominated by judges. In the photo, she is pictured with Chief Justice Stuart Rabner (r) and Director of the Courts Judge Glenn Grant.

Professor Mark Washburne, History & Political Science, was mentioned in a NJ.com news story about U.S. Senator Cory Booker running 300 days without missing a day. Washburne was interviewed for the article because he is the founder and President of Streak Runners International, which keeps track of athletes who run every day. His personal streak totals more than 11,990 consecutive days of running a minimum of three miles a day.

Visiting the Treasures of Thailand – Study Abroad 2023

Next year’s CCM Study Abroad trip is “The Treasures of Thailand.” The trip is open to all members of the CCM community, faculty, staff, students and their families.

The trip leaves on May 26 and consists of 11 days exploring various areas throughout the country.

Highlights include:

- Visiting the Grand Palace and Emerald Buddha
- Cruising down the Chao Praya River
- Shopping at the Damnoen Saduak floating market
- Swimming in the Saiyoke Yai Waterfalls

The Library Extends Its Hours

The CCM Library will have new hours starting Monday, November 7, including two evenings – Wednesdays and Thursdays until 9 p.m. – and Saturdays.

Come to the library for the resources you need. You also can check out services or chat with a librarian at www.ccm.edu/library/.

Encourage students to make use of the library, including group and quiet study spaces, computers, walk-in research help, online guides, plus the LRC café and the best view on campus.

You can find the new hours here www.ccm.edu/library/hours/.

- Riding on the "Death Railway" at the Hellfire Pass Museum
- Exploring the Mae Taeng Valley, to visit the Elephant Nature Park

This All-Inclusive trip has something for everyone. All travel, meals, accommodations, entrance fees, 24/7 bilingual guide and full travel insurance are included (the price may vary depending on a few factors).

CCM All Access

CCM All Access starts its ninth season with a special one-hour interview with Kevin Conod, astronomer for the college's Longo Planetarium. You can watch it at <https://youtu.be/fTcciWAHBrQ>.

Following the training required during initial employment, each year all employees (full-time, part-time and temporary) are required to review and acknowledge receipt of the following policies:

- Data Security (2.2016.1)
- Use of Information (2.009.1)
- Code of Conduct (3.1016)
- Code of Ethics (3.1002)

Earlier this month, you received an email from County College of Morris with the subject line "Vector LMS, Higher Education Edition Online Training" that includes a link to the SafeColleges portal, the college's online employee training vendor. On this site, you will be able to access, read and acknowledge each of these four policies.

The email will include your username. You do not need to provide your training certificates to HR, as it will receive a report from the vendor. Please be aware that non-compliance may result in disciplinary action. The deadline to complete the training is December 9.
