Art Gallery Welcomes Two Regional Artists "Remembering Summer" and "Zen Reflections"

The work of two prominent artists from the New York metropolitan area will be proudly displayed at a pair of exhibitions at the CCM Art Gallery this fall.

The first exhibition, opening September 1, marks the end of the summer season with a series of work capturing the nostalgic childhood memories of artist Ken Rush, of Brooklyn and Vermont, titled "Remembering Summer."

The exhibit features a selection spanning 50 years of Rush's work. "It starts with images from my art school days at Syracuse University and finishes with my most recent paintings," he says. "Along the way, the exhibition visits Coney Island, Vermont State Parks and, finally, innumerable swimming pools – the quintessential symbol of American suburban leisure."

The work explores a variety of materials and techniques, according to Rush, who sees art as a means of extending the joy of his childhood summers.

"In these oil paintings, lurid figures lazily lounge around swimming pools and saunter up to boardwalk snack bars, without a care in the world," according to Brian Sahotsky, CCM Art Gallery director and professor, Art & Design. "These works hold an enduring image of American leisure and ask us all to fondly remember summer."

"Remembering Summer" closes on October 6.

Beginning on October 13, come back to the gallery for more enlightenment with artist Carol Yoshimine's exhibition, "Zen Reflections."

"The subject matter in my work can be loosely attributed to the contemplative state of Zen and its associated state of harmony with nature," explains Yoshimine, executive director at the Sussex County Arts and Heritage Council. "My work is also reflective of the intangibility of existentialist philosophy and the duality between man and the universe."

The unique pieces are characterized by contemplation, introspection and existential abstractions, according to Sahotsky. "Yoshimine's intangible and metaphorical artwork is an interesting juxtaposition to Ken Rush's gallery show, in which the paintings focus on a specific cultivation of collective memory and nostalgia," he says.

"Zen Reflections" will be open through November 17.

An opening reception will be held for "Remembering Summer" on Thursday, September 1, from 6 - 8 p.m. and for "Zen Reflections" on Thursday, October 13 from 6 - 8 p.m.

Enjoy a day out on the links with the CCM Foundation and help support students with fulfilling their dreams for a rewarding and satisfying life.

This year's Annual CCM Foundation Golf Classic takes place Monday, September 19, at the Picatinny Golf Club in Dover and includes lunch and dinner and awards.

All participants will receive a special Golfer Gift and there will be a Hole in One Car and Prize Contest. Raffle prizes also will be given out during the evening program. The cost is $175 per player.

The outing raises funds for the college's scholarship programs and this year is focusing on supporting student athletes and the college's athletic programs.

Picatinny is an exclusive, membership-only facility, considered to be the most respected, perfectly balanced course in New Jersey.

"We're thrilled to offer golfers this opportunity to experience and play on this top-notch, picturesque course in northern New Jersey," says Katie Olsen, executive director of the CCM Foundation. "Players will discover why this course is so well respected for its toughness, fairness and excellent greens."

The day begins with registration at 11 a.m. followed by a shotgun start at noon. Dinner and awards take place from 5 – 7 p.m.

Corporate foursomes, sponsorships and individual players are being sought. For more information and to register, call ext. 5060 or visit www.ccm.edu/foundation/golf/.
