Your Academic Advisor is Prof. James Hart, Department of Languages and ESL, Emeriti Hall, EH 120, 973-328-5420 or jhart@ccm.edu, 973-328-2486.

To determine the transferability of your courses to participating NJ Colleges & Universities, access www.njtransfer.org.

* Students are required to take two Literature courses (see reverse side for course options).

See reverse side for choices.

If you pass the Technology Literacy Competency exam, you are not required to take any Technology courses. If you do not pass the exam, you must take a 1-4 credit General Education Technology course. See reverse side for choices.

+ Students must complete a sequence of classes in one modern language up to and including the Intermediate II level or higher. The number of classes needed to reach this level will depend on the student's initial placement. If fewer than 4 semesters of work are required to reach this intermediate level of language competence, the student may begin a second language or fill the unused credits with humanities electives.
