

“First LEARN, then remove the L”

Yasin Yilmaz is a student at County College of Morris pursuing a degree in Fine Arts concentration in Architecture. Yasin Recently got accepted into NJIT and will be pursuing a Bachelor of Architecture in Architecture degree. His goal is to one day become a licensed architect that builds homes and buildings that stand out in their environment. Yasin’s hobbies include playing video games, watching/playing soccer, exploring with friends, and of course drawing up conceptual designs.