

Emil DeSena is a graduating CCM student who is pursuing a degree in Fashion Design. He aspires to focus his studies and career in costume design and fashion illustration. Whether he's illustrating or making a garment, he always has an eye for detail in his work. He finds his biggest inspiration in fantasy, gothic subculture, and religious and mythological imagery.