

About Me

Mark Fagan is currently finishing his last semester at CCM in order to receive an Associates of Fine Arts with a concentration in Architecture. He plans on transferring to NJIT for the Fall 2021 semester. Mark is very determined with everything he puts his mind to and doesn't settle for anything short of his best work. One of his several hobbies is playing and watching basketball and baseball.