

Dana Miller

Dana was born in Florham Park, New Jersey and raised in Morris Plains, New Jersey. She always had a passion for the arts and knew since she was young that she wanted work in the design industry. Her high school experience was shortened with an early graduation, June of her sophomore year (2019). With this, Dana jumped right into college, majoring in Fashion Merchandising at County College of Morris. She intends on achieving her associates in the fall semester of next year.
