

Disha Shah

Disha is currently a student at County College of Morris, this will be her last semester at CCM and she will soon be receiving an Associates in Fine Arts degree with a concentration in Architecture. Disha will be transferring to NJIT to continue working towards her degree in Bachelors of Architecture, and continue to expand her knowledge in the field of architecture. She hopes to gain real world experience and become a licensed architect in the future.