

Jenna Lentz

Jenna Lentz is an undergraduate student that plans on finishing the Fashion Design program at the County College of Morris. Graduating in May 2021 with an Associate's of Fine Arts degree. She plans on attending another college where she can continue to shape and enhance her current skill set as well as knowledge in fashion design. Jenna has always been intrigued that fashion can become a form of art. She continues to express her creativity and original ideas, turning them into aspirations and creating fashion. Jenna is hoping her education will master and direct her for a career in the fashion industry.