

“Architecture is not based on concrete and steel, and the elements of the soil. It's based on wonder.”

- Daniel Libeskind

Kaytlynn Chey

Kaytlynn is an undergraduate student at County College of Morris pursuing an Associates of Fine Arts degree with a concentration in Architecture. Upon completion of her degree, she plans to transfer to a school in California and pursue a Bachelor of Architecture degree, hopefully California Polytechnic University. From there, she would seek employment at a firm where she could further explore the creative processes of Architecture. She presently enjoys the artistic aspects which involve drawing, rendering, and model making. Kaytlynn’s hobbies include watercolor painting, sketching, tennis, ukulele, and spending time outdoors under the sun in the warmer months.
