Chair Massages offered Today

Health Services will offer chair massages on Thursday, May 10 in the Health Services Office. Massages are $1 per minute. Call ext. 5160 to schedule an appointment.

CCM to Co-host Forum on Stem Cells

County College of Morris will co-host the first regional Stem Cell Public Information Forum titled “Why Stem Cells?” from 7 to 9 p.m., Tuesday, May 22 in the Student Community Center Davidson Room. Admission is free, but space is limited and seats must be reserved. To reserve a seat go to http://www.stemcellhealing.org/cdr_signup_052207.php

The event is designed to help residents with simple answers to important questions. The topics will include a definition of stem cells, the personal benefits of stem cell science and the benefits of funding stem cell research in the State of New Jersey. A panel will also discuss how stem cells are being used today and what diseases might be treatable with stem cells in the future.

The panel will include:

Basics: Barry Komisaruk, Ph.D., Rutgers University

Clinical: Robert Heary, M.D., UMDNJ-New Jersey Medical School

Education: Bunny Jaskot, President, Biology Teachers Association of New Jersey

Research: Treena Arinzeh, Ph.D., New Jersey Institute of Technology

Ethics: Jeffrey Buechner, Ph.D., Rutgers University

Economics: Donald Sebastian, Ph.D., New Jersey Institute of Technology

CCM President Edward J. Yaw and Assemblyman Neil Cohen (D-Union) will welcome the attendees. Organizers include NJIT and the Newark Institute for Regenerative Research, UMDNJ, Rutgers University and the United Jewish Communities of Metrowest New Jersey.

For more information, call Dean Jane Armstrong at 973-328-5340.

HR offers Caregiver Support Sessions

Lunch and Learn Series

HR is offering the Lunch & Learn series, "Caregiver Outreach in the Workplace" beginning this Thursday, May 10. Thursday's session topic is "Caregiving 101: What Every New Caregiver Needs to Know" in HPE 225 from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm. All employees are welcome. Please contact Rita Ragany-Bayer at ext. 5041 if you are planning to attend.

Series Schedule:

- May 10: Caregiving 101: What Every New Caregiver Needs to Know
- May 17: The Importance of Organizing Documents as We Age - and How to Do It
- May 31: Emotional Minefields: Guilt, Anger, Depression, and How to Cope
- June 7: Mastering the Unique Challenges of Caring for a Loved One with Dementia
- June 14: Housing Options for Elders - Finding the Best Place
- June 21: Long-Distance Caregiving: Make the Most of Your Visits and Learn to Access Resources

Teen Arts Festival

On Monday, May 14 from 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m., the college will host the Annual Teen Arts Festival. Volunteers are still needed. Even one hour would be great! If you are available, call Robert Craig, Coordinator for Youth Programming. He is now located in Cohen Hall 251-F at ext. 5072.

Reminders...

- CCM's 38th Commencement Exercises will be held on May 24 at 7:00 p.m. in the HPE gymnasium. If you cannot attend, don't forget to watch the live simulcast of the ceremony on CCM TV Channel 22 (Cablevision) from your home or in Sheffield Hall - A132. You can get detailed information about the commencement ceremony at the website: <http://www.ccm.edu/grad>
- Surplus Equipment Sale - As most of you know, the last groups were moved out of Henderson Hall this week. Due to the many surplus items now available, a sale is being held to the general public on May 11 at noon in the showroom located at the rear of the Security/Plant & Maintenance building. You can review the list from the email that was sent by John Young, but please remember that the listing does not include furnishings. See you at the sale!
- Planetarium: Shapes in the Sky 19 - This is part of the Planetarium's series of programs dedicated especially for children ages 3 to 7, with fun for every age! For thousands of years, all over the world, people have imagined shapes among the stars. You can learn about many of these shapes and hear the stories behind them. Performances will be held on Saturday, May 12, at 11 am, 1 pm, and 3 pm. Call the box office at ext. 5076 to make a reservation as shows tend to sell out. And, visit the website for more planetarium information. <http://www.ccm.edu/planetarium/index.html>
