Spring Foreign Film Series “The Lives of Others”

May 16

7:30 p.m. in the Dragonetti Auditorium

The film begins in East Berlin 1984 (five years before the fall of the Berlin Wall) and takes the viewers all the way to 1991 (in a Germany that has been reunited). Both a drama and a political thriller, the film follows Captain Gerd Wiesler as he is tasked with spying on two individuals—celebrated playwright George Dreyman and actress Christa-Maria Sieland, both of whom are suspected of not being loyal to the SED, the ruling Socialist Unity party. Wiesler becomes more and more immersed in his subject’s world and in their existence which is full of all the things that Wiesler’s life is lacking. Winner of the 2006 Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film.

Tickets are sold at the door. The Box Office opens at 6:30 p.m. Admission is $5. For more information contact ext. 5054.

Commencement 2008

May 29

7 - 9 p.m. in the HPE Building

CCM’s Alma Mater

CCM’s 39th Commencement is just two weeks away, and as customary, the CCM Alma Mater will be sung.

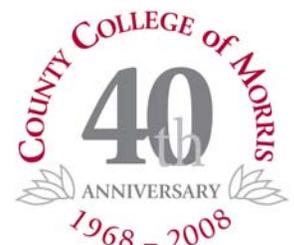

How was CCM’s Alma Mater created?

The college song was first introduced at the inauguration of President Yaw in 1987, and sung by the CCM Chamber choir, under the direction of Marielaine Mammon. The words were written by Sander Zulauf, and the music was taken from Felix Mendelssohn’s “Song Without Words”. It was arranged by Dr. John Gorman.

*CCM’s
Alma Mater
By Sander Zulauf*

*Where raptors soar
The mountain o’er
Let us resolve with might
To seek and find
With open minds
The love of truth and light*

*“Sapere Aude!
Sapere Aude!”
To all the world we show
That CCM
Women and men
Will ever dare to know.*
