40th Anniversary Slogan Winner Announced

Cindy Johnson, Department Administrative Assistant in Psychology and Education, is the winner of a college-wide competition to choose a slogan for CCM's 40th Anniversary. More than 120 slogans were submitted and Cindy's entry – "40 Years of Connecting Learning and Life" – was chosen by a committee that included members of the Marketing Committee and the President's Cabinet. "I have a background in advertising, having worked for the Daily Record in advertising sales," said Cindy. "I researched some of the slogans being used by other colleges and thought about what we do here at CCM and the phrase just came to me." As the winner, Cindy received a gift certificate for dinner at Café Shay's in Randolph, NJ, which was presented to her by Dr. Edward J. Yaw, CCM President, and Joseph Vitale, Executive Director of College Advancement and Planning. In addition, Cindy will receive unlimited passes to all performances sponsored by the Music and Performing Arts Department for the 2008-2009 academic year. The slogan, along with the 40th Anniversary symbol, will begin appearing on signage and ads as we move closer to the official "Celebration Day" on September 29. Congratulations!
