CCM Professor James Gwynne Awarded Best in Show at Westmoreland Art Nationals

James Gwynne, professor of visual arts at County College of Morris, recently was awarded Best in Show at the Westmoreland Art Nationals Juried Exhibition for his painting "Asleep on Blue Drape," a large bold work depicting a woman resting on a spread of blue cloth.

Since 1978, the Westmoreland Art Nationals has showcased national and international artists as part of the Westmoreland Arts & Heritage Festival at Twin Lakes Park in Greensburg, PA. A total of 113 works were entered into the 2010 Westmoreland Art Nationals by 57 artists, representing 22 states and Belgium.

"It means a lot to be recognized and acknowledged for your work," said Gwynne, who resides in East Stroudsburg, PA. "I'm delighted to have received Best in Show in this juried exhibition." The juror for this year's show was Robert L. Wood, professor of design and coordinator of the ceramics program at Buffalo State College. Wood's artwork is part of numerous public and private collections throughout the country and has received 12 national awards.

Gwynne joined the CCM faculty in 1972. He also has taught at The College of Wooster, Ohio, and Centenary College. "It's always felt natural to me to teach and I enjoy being around young people," he says of his many years of teaching.

Gwynne Awarded Best in Show (cont'd)

He earned his B.A. from The College of Wooster, Ohio, his M.A. from Michigan State University, and his Ph.D. from New York University. His work has been exhibited in more than 300 shows and is represented in many private, corporate and public collections, including the New Jersey State Museum and Pennsylvania State Museum.

Karin Lowney-Seed to Exhibit Art Show at County College of Morris

County College of Morris will host an art exhibit "War of the Roses" by Karin Lowney-Seed from August 30 to September 30 in the Art Gallery of the Masten Library. A reception will be held to meet the artist from 5:30 - 8:30 p.m., September 9.

Karin Lowney-Seed is an award-winning fine artist with a sharp narrative style of painting. Her paintings are bold, colorful and confident with a keen eye for visual balance. There is often a humorous element that runs throughout her work. If the painting doesn't make you laugh out-loud, it will most definitely provoke a smile.

She holds a Masters in Fine Arts degree from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. Lowney-Seed is an adjunct professor of Art History at County College of Morris. She has been the featured artist in many shows and has had several one person shows. Her paintings and sculptures are featured in many private collections.
