Former CCM Athletic Director Chosen for Hall of Fame

Following a career in which he helped build the County College of Morris (CCM) Department of Athletics while furthering the cause of student-athletes at two-year colleges, Jack Martin is being recognized by his peers across the nation. Martin, the former long-time athletic director at CCM, has been selected as a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) 2013 Hall of Fame class. Martin will be inducted on Friday, June 14, during NACDA's 48th Annual Convention at the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup Awards Luncheon at the World Center Marriott Resort in Orlando, FL. Read more at <http://tinyurl.com/oh4e3ke>.

CCM Registrar to Serve as Survivor Speaker for Relay for Life

Michele Dunn, registrar at CCM, will be serving as the Survivor Speaker at the Relay for Life of Greater Parsippany. The overnight event takes place June 8 through 9 in Veteran's Park in Parsippany. Dunn is scheduled to speak on June 8 at 4 p.m.

"I decided to take part in this year's relay both to honor my father who lost his battle to cancer in December of 2007 and to celebrate my battle with lymphoma, which has been in remission since January 2008 and is now cured," says Dunn. "This insidious disease touches so many lives, I want to be part of the battle for a cure." Read more at <http://tinyurl.com/p4egcfa>.

HPE Recreational Facilities Closed Due to Renovations

In preparation for renovations this summer in the Health and Physical Education building, all of its recreational facilities will be closed, effective immediately. This includes the aquatic facility, fitness center, weight room, locker rooms, dance studio and main gymnasium.

STUDENT HONORS

Golf Team Qualifies for National Championships

The CCM Titans men's golf team has qualified for the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Division III National Championships, the third time in seven years the team has accomplished the feat. This year's qualification follows the Titans' back-to-back appearances in 2007 and 2008. Read more at <http://tinyurl.com/ksp3nuv>.

Students Presented with All-USA Certificates of Achievement

Two of the best and brightest members of the Class of 2013 at CCM have been recognized for their academic achievements and community involvement with the award of All-USA Academic Team certificates and appointment to the New Jersey All-State Academic Team. Sean Moore and Chaz Weiner were two of 40 community college students from New Jersey to be selected for the All-State Academic Team, sponsored by the Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society and Coca-Cola Foundation. As part of that honor, they also were awarded All-USA Community College Certificates. Read more at <http://tinyurl.com/njd2upg>.

Student Wins Artistic Scholarship

Andrew Sperber, a graphic design major at CCM, recently was awarded a scholarship for a two-year student from the Art Directors Club of New Jersey (ADCNJ) for the quality of his design work. ADCNJ's scholarships for two- and four-year students are based on the creativity and functionality of the work included in their submitted portfolios. In total, 75 student portfolios were submitted this year. Read more at <http://tinyurl.com/p3nwa3w>.
