Learn About the Real Mad Men at CCM Forum

Have you ever wondered if working for an advertising agency is actually like the show Mad Men? Does creative advertising intrigue you? Have you dreamed of working for an advertising agency on Madison Avenue? Join Bernie Zlotnick, adjunct professor of advertising design at CCM, and other award-winning creative directors from the world of advertising at “The Real MADison Men” forum.

The forum takes place Tuesday, October 1, from 12:30 - 1:45 p.m. in Cohen Hall, Room 100. The event is free and open to the public.

Keith Smith, dean of the Division of Liberal Arts at CCM and Zlotnick, one of the original “Mad Men,” developed the forum to share stories of what it was really like to work for Madison Avenue ad firms during the 1960s and 1970s. Read more at <http://tinyurl.com/psgdpiq>.

De-Stress Fest Offers Education, Activities

The third annual De-Stress Fest will take place on Thursday, September 26, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Student Community Center Davidson Rooms. This event is designed to assist students, as well as faculty and staff, in learning how certain factors in their lives can positively or negatively impact health and wellness.

The eight dimensions of wellness (physical, emotional, social, spiritual, intellectual, occupational, environmental, financial) will be defined and explored through various interactive activities. Attendees will learn and obtain techniques to help them achieve wellness by understanding how each dimension can affect various aspects of one’s life.

The event, hosted by the Department of Counseling & Student Success, offers a fantastic opportunity for students to earn additional credit. An attendance sheet will be provided. If you need more information on how this event can be utilized effectively as a learning tool for the classroom, please call Counseling & Student Success at 973-328-5142.

The following free activities will be offered: massages, Reiki, stretching and strengthening, kickboxing cardio, and a scavenger hunt surrounding the eight dimensions of wellness.

Volunteers Needed at Festival

CCM will once again join in the festivities at the Festival on the Green in Morristown on Sunday, September 29. CCM will have two tables at the festival to promote the college – one at the Main Stage and one by the Green. Volunteers are needed to help spread the word about all CCM has to offer.

If you are able to help staff the tables for an hour or two between the hours of noon and 5 p.m., please contact Rick Burchfield at ext. 5050 or rburchfield@ccm.edu. You may also contact Rick if you have any materials you would like handed out at the event. The festival promises to be a great time, with CCM’s own Professor Joe Bilotti continuing the tradition of performing on the Main Stage with his Heart of Gold Band.
