Become a CCM Ambassador

Faculty and staff are the college's best ambassadors when it comes to promoting all that County College of Morris (CCM) has to offer students at all stages of life. The more we each know about CCM, the more effective we can be at playing a role in recruiting and retaining students.

Want to know what programs of study CCM offers, the top colleges and universities students transfer to across the country and New Jersey, and some of the great things recent graduates have to say? The recently updated Admissions viewbook is a good place to start. Also included – on the back cover – are the steps prospective students need to take to apply to CCM and enroll for classes. An electronic version of the viewbook can be found at <http://tinyurl.com/om2dcam>. Should you like to have some printed copies, please contact Kathleen Brunet Eagan at kbeagan@ccm.edu or ext. 5052.
