Pennsylvania First Lady Selects CCM Professor's Painting

Pennsylvania First Lady Frances Donnelly Wolf recently selected an oil painting by Dr. James Gwynne, professor of visual arts at County College of Morris (CCM), to become part of the artwork on display at the governor's mansion.

The painting, Sunset with Telephone Pole, which is part of the permanent collection of The State Museum of Pennsylvania, depicts a scene in West Milford where Gwynne used to live. The First Lady, the wife of Governor Tom Wolf, is also an oil painter.

The governor's mansion is located in Harrisburg, PA, and is used for official functions and meetings, as the governor and his family live in their private residence. Read more at <http://tinyurl.com/jofcyug>.

Commencement Regalia Order Info; Volunteers Needed

CCM's 47th Commencement Exercises will take place on Friday, May 27, beginning at 10 a.m. Regalia order forms are being sent to faculty and administration through campus mail. All faculty and administrators who need to order regalia should complete and return the forms to the Campus Store by March 3.

There will be no charge to the participants for the rental of graduation regalia. However, orders received in the Campus Store after March 3 will have a $20 late fee for special handling and shipping. The fee will be charged to the participant's department. Any questions should be directed to Dolores Schepisi at the Campus Store (ext. 5151 or dschepisi@ccm.edu).

While faculty are expected to don a cap and gown to be part of the commencement ceremony, you may also volunteer to assist with the ceremony. Volunteers are needed to serve as ushers inside the gymnasium and must stay for the entire ceremony. If you wish to volunteer as an usher, please email dbell@ccm.edu. Please note that if
