CCM Student on a Mission to Increase Organ Donor Awareness

A CCM graduate, who has returned to the college as a part-time Nursing student, is using his experience as an organ transplant recipient to help others.

Cameron Wohl, of Parsippany, who earned his associate degree in Exercise Science from CCM in 2010, received part of his older brother Jared's liver three years ago. Since then, the brothers have worked together to produce a documentary about that experience. The documentary, called "65 Percent," can be seen on their website, The Wave Set – www.thewaveset.com – which is part of a campaign to raise awareness about organ donation. ### Tickets Available to the Yankees vs Tampa Bay Baseball Game

On Friday, July 28, the CCM Alumni Association will be conducting a bus trip to the New York Yankees vs Tampa Bay Rays at Yankee Stadium. Tickets are available for $74 for CCM staff and students and $76 for guests. This includes seating in the Main Level, Section 210, and round trip charter bus transportation. A special collectible cup will be offered at Yankee Stadium as a promotion that evening. The bus leaves CCM at 3:30 p.m. from the Health and Physical Education Building. The game starts at 7:05 p.m.

Tickets are on sale through the Alumni Office, Henderson Hall, Room 211. Payment is by cash or check.

Summer Reading at the CCM Library

Make the best of your summer reading. Stop by the library at CCM to check out this book list: <http://tinyurl.com/y8w38zn3>.

Support Student Scholarships at the Black River Barn

Mark your calendars for Thursday, July 20 – come to the Black River Barn, located at 1178 Rt. 10 West, Randolph. The Barn will donate 15 percent of the sales that day to the CCM Foundation. Dine in, take out or purchase a gift certificate and just put your receipt in the container provided when you exit. Enjoy a delicious lunch or dinner to support student scholarships! For directions and restaurant information, go to www.blackriverbarn.com.

Mental Health Training

The Human Resources and Counseling and Student Success departments have scheduled make up sessions for the Mental Health Training program for those employees who were unable to attend past sessions. The second taped viewing will take place on Monday, July 17, from 2 to 3:30 p.m., in Sheffield Hall, Room 100.

Please contact Joan Brueche at jbrueche@ccm.edu to sign up.

KUDOS

Two CCM Students Presented with Morris Lieff Award

CCM Students Adam S. Novak, an Electronics Engineering Technology major, and John G. Walters, a Science and Math/Chemistry major, were recently selected to each receive a Morris Lieff award in the amount of $250.

On the occasion of his 70th birthday, the family of Dr. Morris Lieff, one of the college's first division deans, established an award to recognize academic achievement in science and technology. Each year, nominations are solicited from the Business, Mathematics, Engineering and Technologies and Health and Natural Science divisions. Science and technology students who are approaching their spring or summer graduation are nominated based on their record of academic excellence.

Tickets Available to the Mets vs A's Baseball Game

On Sunday, July 23, CCM will be conducting a bus trip to NY Mets vs Oakland Athletics at Citi Field. Join CCM on this annual trek to watch the playoff-bound Amazin' Mets, as they take on the 1989 World Series Champions Oakland A's.

Tickets are available at $30 for CCM students and $35 for guests (three per ID). This includes ballpark admission (Big Apple Reserved) and roundtrip bus transportation.

Special Mets Promotion includes Yoenis Cespedes Compression Sleeve (first 15,000 fans). Tickets are on sale at the Campus Life information window in the Student Community Center. Only cash or check will be accepted.

The CCM Event Participant's Hold Harmless form is available at <http://tinyurl.com/ycflc5n7>. The form must be completed by all CCM bus trip participants prior to the trip. The bus leaves CCM at 10:30 a.m., from the front entrance area of the Health and Physical Exercise Building. Game starts at 1:10 p.m.

The event is sponsored by the CCM Office of Campus Life.

Accounting Year-End Reminders

Please note that Monday, July 17, is the last day to submit FY 2017 petty cash reimbursements, expense reimbursements and travel reconciliations.
