Dr. Bette Simmons Named Girl Scouts Board Chair

Congratulations to Dr. Bette Simmons, vice president of Student Development and Enrollment, for assuming the position of board chair for the Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey. In an interview with the Daily Record, Simmons said, "We have almost 30,000 girls involved in scouting in Northern New Jersey. We're one of the top Girl Scout councils in the country in so many different categories. I like being part of an organization that's really promoting that for young women because we need strong female leaders in this world."

CCM Staff Participate in Roundtable with Governor Christie

Governor Chris Christie brought his ongoing mission to battle opioid addiction to a meeting at Homeless Solutions on Wednesday, July 19. Attending the meeting were counselors and others he labeled as "angels on earth," which included Bob Lipka and Beth Rodgers from CCM's Center for Business and Technology. The sessions was held as a drug-counseling certification program roundtable.

Christie, who has spent much of his last year in office drumming up support for addiction treatment, praised a Morris County-based

Foundation Center Databases at CCM Library

Looking for funding? Try any of the three Foundation Center databases in the CCM library. The databases contain over 140,000 grant-makers and the information is updated weekly. Easily download a list of relevant organizations and/or email detailed records. Information includes contacts, grant amounts, donation history, limitations, etc.

Ask a librarian to demonstrate best searches for organizations that support your field of interest. The databases are as follows:

- Foundation Directory Online
- Foundation Grants to Individuals
- Foundation Maps

These databases are available on-site only, so do drop by for a demo. For more information, call the CCM library at 973-328-5296 or visit <http://ccm.libguides.com/Info>.
