DISCOVER CCM'S WIDE RANGE OF PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

County College of Morris will be holding an Information Session for the community and local businesses to learn about the college's wide array of continuing professional education and certificate programs taking place from January through July 2018.

The free Information Session takes place Tuesday, January 9, in the Student Community Center, Davidson Rooms, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Instructors will be on hand to discuss popular program offerings, including Certified Nursing Assistant, Certified Medical and Billing Coder, Project Management certification and Microsoft Office, along with a full-range of information technology programs such as AutoCAD, Cisco-CCNA and CompTia A+. New courses for the new year include a Career Certificate in Hotel, Restaurant and Hospitality, Certified Peer Recovery Specialist and the in-demand programming language known as R, which is used to analyze large data sets.

DO YOU HAVE THE POST-HOLIDAY BLUES?

The buzz, the flurry of activity, the over indulging and family togetherness ... and then all the hoopla is over. As quick as the holidays come, they go away and we're left to face the winter doldrums. For some, this can be a letdown and the onset of sadness, trouble sleeping and frustration.

The Employee Assistance Program is a problem-solving company that offers counseling and health-related and stress management seminars. Its goal is to help you take the best care of yourself as possible.

Counseling is free, confidential and convenient ... just call 1-800-300-0628, 24/7, 365 days a year.
