CCM OFFERS PROGRAMS FOR THOSE LOOKING TO BUILD A BUSINESS IN LANDSCAPING

For those who dream of building a business in the landscaping industry, CCM offers a number of pathways to make that possible through its Department of Landscape and Horticultural Technology (LHT). Degrees and certificates are offered in Agribusiness, Landscape Management and Design, and Turf and Turfgrass Management. Design track is the most popular, according to Brian Oleksak, associate professor and chair of the LHT department.

A degree or certificate from CCM’s LHT department allows students to propel a small landscaping business to the next level. Education in cutting-edge technology and practices can transform a small business into one with multiple employees and a highly profitable income stream.

LHT students learn in a setting where science, sustainability and technology all come together. They study and work in a LEED Gold Certified Building in design labs using the latest programming tools. Included among the software students learn is DynaSCAPE, an industry recognized landscape business management program. LHT students also have access to two Kubota sub-compact tractors, a skid-steer and various small-to-mid sized equipment.

WORKPLACE HARASSMENT PREVENTION TRAINING

Human Resources will be conducting two additional sessions of mandatory Workplace Harassment Prevention Training in September.

Faculty and staff who missed the May presentation must attend either of the following sessions:

- Tuesday, September 3, 1-2:30 p.m. in SH100
- Thursday, September 12, 9-10:30 a.m. in LRC 121

Supervisory staff are required to stay for an additional half hour at the end of each session.

OUCH! NEWSLETTER

This month's OUCH! newsletter focuses on the importance of backing up your system. Learn in simple terms what backups are, how they work and how to setup a backup program that works for you.

ADOBE CREATIVE CLOUD 2019 LICENSING CHANGES

Adobe has changed their licensing model for its Creative Cloud 2019 suite of software. Going forward, users of this software will be required to use their CCM credentials to access the programs every time they login. Information Systems is working on implementing these changes throughout the college and more information will be available shortly. If you encounter a problem using the Adobe software, please contact the Solution Center.
