Timeliness: Complainants are encouraged to submit a complaint as soon as possible after an alleged incident of discrimination has occurred. However, the College is aware that this is not always possible. Therefore, the College strongly encourages individuals who believe they have been discriminated against or harassed to file a complaint to the appropriate office within 90 120 calendar days following an incident. If the complainant can show good cause to do so, the AA/EO Officer Vice President of Human Resources and Labor Relations may waive this timeline. This waiver should normally not exceed 120 180 calendar days from the date of the alleged discrimination or harassment.

Confidentiality: The College has an affirmative obligation to eliminate discrimination on campus in violation of its policies and federal and state laws. While the College will make every reasonable effort to honor a request for confidentiality or anonymity of the person reporting discrimination, the College is required to investigate and take remedial action in any situation where there is a reasonable basis to believe that violations of the non-discrimination policies has occurred or is occurring.

Privacy: All complaints and investigations shall be handled, to the extent possible, in a manner that will protect the privacy interests of those involved. To the extent practical and appropriate under the circumstances, privacy shall be maintained throughout the investigatory process. Complainants will be advised that it is usually necessary to discuss the claims with the person(s) against whom the complaint was filed and other persons who may have relevant knowledge or who have a legitimate need to know about the matter. All persons interviewed, including witnesses, shall be directed not to discuss any aspect of the investigation with others in light of the important privacy interest of all concerned. Failure to comply with this directive may result in administrative and/or disciplinary action.

While the College will make every reasonable effort to honor a request for privacy or anonymity of the person reporting discrimination or harassment, the College is required to investigate and take remedial action in any situation where there is a reasonable basis to believe that violations of the Policy has occurred or is occurring. The discharge of these College obligations usually requires disclosure to the accused person of the identity of the person reporting the discrimination or harassment.

Confidential Resources Counseling: Community-based private counselors, Employee Assistance Counselors and members of the clergy ("Community Based Private Counselor") have a higher level of legally protected confidentiality than representatives of the College who have direct responsibility for identifying, investigating and eradicating discrimination. The confidentiality afforded to students by a County College of Morris counselor for the student population (hereafter referred to as a "campus counselor") is limited by the campus counselor's institutional responsibility to assure the safety and wellbeing of other students and members of the College community as described in the "Statement of Confidentiality" provided to students who consult a campus counselor. Anyone wishing to speak privately with a Community Based Private Counselor about discrimination before reporting an incident to the College may contact a Community Based Private Counselor private counselor or member of the clergy.
