A complainant may simultaneously file a complaint through one of the internal processes or with an external agency to meet state or federal agency deadlines. The ~~AA/EO Officer~~ Vice President of Human Resources and Labor Relations will maintain a record of all complaints received, determinations made and actions taken.

The College reserves the right to investigate and resolve a complaint or report of discrimination or harassment regardless of whether the complainant pursues the complaint. In such cases, the respondent shall be informed of the status of the investigation at reasonable times until the College's final disposition of the complaint, and will be given the opportunity to respond to the substance of the complaint as otherwise outlined in this policy.

Timeliness: Complainants are encouraged to submit a complaint as soon as possible after an alleged incident of discrimination has occurred. However, the College is aware that this is not always possible. Therefore, the College strongly encourages individuals who believe they have been discriminated against or harassed to file a complaint to the appropriate office within 90 ~~120~~ calendar days following an incident. If the complainant can show good cause to do so, the ~~AA/EO Officer~~ Vice President of Human Resources and Labor Relations may waive this timeline. This waiver should normally not exceed 120 ~~180~~ calendar days from the date of the alleged discrimination or harassment.

Confidentiality: ~~The College has an affirmative obligation to eliminate discrimination on campus in violation of its policies and federal and state laws. Privacy: All complaints and investigations shall be handled, to the extent possible, in a manner that will protect the privacy interests of those involved. To the extent practical and appropriate under the circumstances, privacy shall be maintained throughout the investigatory process. Complainants will be advised that it is usually necessary to discuss the claims with the person(s) against whom the complaint was filed and other persons who may have relevant knowledge or who have a legitimate need to know about the matter. All persons interviewed, including witnesses, shall be directed not to discuss any aspect of the investigation with others in light of the important privacy interest of all concerned. Failure to comply with this directive may result in administrative and/or disciplinary action.

While the College will make every reasonable effort to honor a request for privacy or anonymity of the person reporting discrimination or harassment, the College is required to investigate and take remedial action in any situation where there is a reasonable basis to believe that violations of the Policy has occurred or is occurring. The discharge of these College obligations usually requires disclosure to the accused person of the identity of the person reporting the discrimination or harassment.

Confidential Resources Counseling: Community-based private counselors, Employee Assistance Counselors and members of the clergy (“Community Based Private Counselor”) have a higher level of legally protected confidentiality than representatives of the College who have direct responsibility for identifying, investigating and eradicating discrimination. The confidentiality afforded to students by a County College of Morris counselor for the student population (hereafter referred to as a “campus counselor”) is limited by the campus counselor’s institutional responsibility to assure the safety and wellbeing of other students and members of the College community as described in the “Statement of Confidentiality” provided to students who consult a campus counselor. Anyone wishing to speak privately with a Community Based Private Counselor about discrimination before reporting an incident to the College may contact a Community Based Private Counselor ~~private counselor or member of the clergy~~. Referrals to such counseling are available as follows:

Code:

~~Deleted text~~

1. Students: Any student wishing to speak privately about concerns about possible discrimination or harassment may consult a campus counselor for referral to Community-Based Private Counseling services. In addition to providing referrals to Community Based Private Counseling services ~~private counseling services~~, the campus counselor shall provide the student with a copy of this Policy ~~these Procedures~~.
2. Employees: Any full time employee wishing to speak privately about concerns of discrimination or harassment may do so through the Employee Assistance Program by contacting RWJ Barnabas Health One Source at 1-800-300-0628 and identifying himself or herself themselves as an employee of the College. The Employee Assistance Counselor, in addition to any other services, shall provide the employee with a copy of these Procedures.

Discussions with a campus counselor or a Community Based Private Counselor ~~private counselor~~ are not a substitute for reporting incidents of discrimination or harassment to the College. All members of the College community are encouraged to report suspected incidents of discrimination or harassment to the College so that corrective action can be taken.

Employees who wish to report an observed discrimination or harassment act anonymously may utilize the College’s “Confidential Witness Report Form” located on the College website under Public Safety. The information reported remains confidential except for disclosures necessary to ensure the safety of the College community. Public Safety will forward the information to the AA/EO Officer for further action.

Reporting Responsibility: All college employees, with the exception of employees designated as Confidential Resources, are required ~~students and employees should~~ to report to the AA/EO Officer ~~Vice President of Human Resources and Labor Relations~~ any discrimination or harassment experienced and/or observed ~~that is in violation of the College’s policies~~. Administrators and supervisors must report incidents of discrimination in a timely manner to the Vice President of Human Resources and Labor Relations. Sexual harassment is to be reported to the Title IX Coordinator as designated in the College’s “Policy Prohibiting Sexual Harassment”.
