

Policy Defining Full-Time Hourly Employees

For the purposes of entitlement to health benefit and dental coverage, and paid leaves, persons employed on or after May 22, 2010 shall be considered full-time if the employee appears on a regular payroll as an hourly employee and received a salary or wages for an average number of 30 hours per week, or more.