

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

Liberal Arts and Sciences—Humanities/Social Science is a firm foundation for careers including law, education, government, publishing, writing and research. The degree is also for students whose academic interests are in the social sciences or humanities such as psychology, economics or history.

At County College of Morris, our Liberal Arts and Sciences—Humanities/Social Science Program is an ideal foundation for transferring to a four-year college or university in a wide variety of majors including English, history, languages, economics, psychology, sociology, philosophy, women and gender studies, political science and many other fields. The breadth of the program also allows students who are uncertain of their career goals to explore their interests.

WHY STUDY HUMANITIES/SOCIAL SCIENCE AT CCM?

Students enrolled in the Humanities/Social Science Program will study in state-of-the-art classrooms, equipped with cutting-edge technology. There are 74 full-time faculty in the program with a variety of accomplishments and publications. The program is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education.
