

COUNTY COLLEGE of MORRIS

Nursing Program

Overview

Associate of Applied Science

- Two Phases
 - Preprofessional (prerequisite courses)
 - Professional (clinical courses)
- Tracks of study
 - Day
 - Evening/hybrid
 - Advanced Placement
 - NJ STARS

Professional Phase

- Competitive admission
 - Ranking of English and science courses
- Admit two cohorts per year
 - Fall (days)
 - Spring (evenings/hybrid)
- 2 – 3 applicants for every seat
- Four consecutive semesters (fall/spring)

Outstanding Faculty

- Promote scholarship, teaching excellence and life-long learning
 - Masters or Doctorate prepared
 - Certified Nurse Educators (CNE)
- Maintain clinical expertise
 - Clinical practitioners
 - Certified in clinical specialty
- FT faculty teach all course components
- Maintain rigor, currency and integrity of curriculum

Excellent Clinical Facilities

Extensive and consistently excellent clinical learning opportunities within a local radius

- Multiple Magnet facilities
- Level I trauma center
- State burn center
- Behavioral health facilities
- Long term care facilities

Comprehensive Nursing Lab

- Safe supervised environment for learning and practicing clinical skills
- Staffed by Registered Nurses
- Day and evening hours
- Supplies are consistent with contemporary practice and clinical affiliates
- Includes high fidelity simulation
- Simulation Center – coming soon

Program Highlights

- Accredited by the ACEN
- Reputation for excellence
- Competitive admission
- Student/Graduate Satisfaction
- Employer Satisfaction
- Cost effective

NCLEX-RN Pass Rates

- Consistently above the required benchmark of 80%
- Consistently above the national average

Job Placement Rates

- Consistently exceeds the benchmark of 80%
- Most recent surveys show 95+% employment

Seamless Academic Progression

Articulation agreements with:

- Saint Elizabeth University (formerly CSE)
- Drexel University
- Montclair State University
- Ramapo College of New Jersey
- Rutgers: The State University of New Jersey
- Thomas Edison State University
- William Paterson University