

I am a Junior fashion illustrator and designer who loves art in all its senses. My artwork is inspired by everything I love but mostly in how I see it. Through illustration and design, I am focused on creating bold, colorful work with a feminine accent that stands out, attracts the eyes and provides opportunity to see beauty in everything in life.